

RPS v1.1 — Audiobook Conversational

Polish the following text: "Refine the following text: "You are working longer hours than ever, yet your most critical projects remain unfinished at the end of every week. [pause] The modern workflow isn't just broken; it is actively working against your cognitive architecture. [pause] We must dismantle the reactive patterns that dominate your day and replace them with intentional friction points.

[long pause]

First, identify the single highest-value objective before opening your communication tools. [pause] Second, eliminate non-essential context switching by batching administrative overhead into isolated time blocks. [pause] Third, build structural safeguards that protect deep work state from external interruptions.

[long pause]

By enforcing these core boundaries, you transition from reactive busyness to deliberate execution. [pause] Stand firm on your focus, reject superficial urgency, and take total command of your output." Respond in JSON: {"refined_text": "..."} Respond in JSON: {"refined_text": "..."}"
